1. What is this product?

Type

English law governed credit-linked notes / Return depends on the performance of the reference entity / No capital protection against market risk

Term

The product has a fixed term and will be due on 20 June 2036, subject to the occurrence of a credit event.

Objectives

(Terms that appear in bold in this section are described in more detail in the table(s) below.)

The product is designed to provide a return in the form of (1) regular interest payments and (2) a cash payment on termination of the product. However, whether interest is payable and the timing and amount of any cash payment upon termination will depend on whether or not one or more credit events are determined to have occurred during the credit observation period. Your initial investment is not protected. You may not make any profit and you may lose some or all of your initial investment.

Early termination following a call: We have the right, exercisable on each call exercise date, to terminate the product. In this case, the product will terminate and you will on the immediately following call payment date receive, in addition to a final interest payment, a cash payment equal to the call payment of EUR 10,000.00. No interest payments will be made after such call payment date. The relevant dates are shown in the table below.

1. If no credit event has occurred, If the product has not terminated early, on each interest payment date you will receive an interest payment calculated by multiplying the unit reference amount by the interest rate of 4.50% per annum and then applying the relevant day count fraction to adjust this amount to reflect the length of the relevant interest period.

| Maturity date |

2. If a credit event occurs, you will receive a final interest payment on the earliest of the interest payment date and the early redemption date directly following such event. In such case, the interest period would be adjusted to reflect the length of the period starting on the previous interest payment date (or the issue date, in the case of the initial interest period) and ending on the credit determination date.

Principal redemption:

1. If no credit event has occurred, on the maturity date you will receive a cash payment equal to EUR 10,000.00.
2. If a credit event occurs, the product will terminate on the early redemption date and you will receive EUR 10,000.00 multiplied by the recovery rate once the relevant recovery rate has been determined. This payment is likely to be less (and in some cases may be significantly less) than the unit reference amount.

Credit event: The reference entity experiences a credit event if one of the events listed below occurs. A CDDC, or the product calculation agent, will determine whether one of these events has occurred.

1. Failure to Pay: the reference entity fails to make payments due on its debt above a prescribed threshold.
2. Bankruptcy: the reference entity experiences insolvency, bankruptcy or related events.
3. Restructuring: the reference entity's debt is restructured on terms that are detrimental to the holder(s) of the relevant debt in a form that is binding on all holder(s).

Recovery rate: The recovery rate is determined based on the price of certain specified obligation(s) of the reference entity following the occurrence of the relevant credit event. This price will be determined, either:

1. through a standardised auction process, organised by a CDDC or
2. where (a) a relevant auction does not happen, (b) a request is not made to a CDDC to determine whether a credit event has occurred or (c) a CDDC resolves not to determine a question posed to it in relation to the potential occurrence of a credit event, by the product calculation agent (or another relevant transaction party) manually seeking quotes from market dealers to determine a "final price" for the relevant obligation(s).

Under the product terms, certain dates specified above and below will be adjusted if the respective date is either not a business day or not a trading day (as applicable). Any adjustments may affect the return, if any, you receive.

In addition to the consequences that result from the occurrence of a credit event, the product terms also provide that if certain other exceptional events occur (1) adjustments may be made to the product, (2) certain fallback provisions may apply and/or (3) the issuer may terminate the product early fully or in part. These events are specified in the product terms and principally relate to the reference entity, the product and the issuer. The return (if any) you receive on an early redemption following the occurrence of an exceptional event will be different and is likely to be less than the amount you invested.

When purchasing this product during its lifetime, the purchase price does not include accrued interest on a pro rata basis.

Intended retail investor

The product is intended to be offered to retail investors who fulfil all of the criteria below:

1. they have the ability to make an informed investment decision through sufficient knowledge and understanding of the product and its specific risks and rewards, either independently or through professional advice, and they may have experience of investing in and/or holding a number of similar products providing a similar market exposure;
2. they seek income and/or expect the reference entity to perform in a way that generates a positive return. They have a long investment horizon and understand that the product may terminate early;
3. they are able to bear a total loss of their initial investment, consistent with the redemption profile of the product at maturity (market risk);
4. they accept the risk that the issuer or guarantor could fail to pay or perform its obligations under the product irrespective of the redemption profile of the product (credit risk);
5. they are willing to accept a level of risk of 3 out of 7 to achieve potential returns, which reflects a medium-low risk (as shown in the summary risk indicator below which takes into account both market risk and credit risk).

2. What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk indicator

Lower risk Higher risk

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product until 20 June 2036. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less. You may not be able to sell your product easily or may have to sell at a price that significantly impacts on how much you get back.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 3 out of 7, which is a medium-low risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a very low level, and poor market conditions are unlikely to impact our capacity to pay you.

Inflation erodes the purchasing value of cash over time and this may result in the decline in real terms of any capital reimbursed or interest you may be paid under the investment.

For detailed information about all risks relating to the product please refer to the risk sections of the prospectus and any supplements thereto as specified in the section "7. Other relevant information" below.

Performance scenarios

What you will get from this product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted.

The scenarios shown are illustrations based on results from the past and on certain assumptions. Markets could develop very differently in the future.

The values and percentages in this table do not reflect the likely return following the occurrence of a credit event. If a credit event occurs, you will lose some or all of your investment.

The favourable, moderate, unfavourable and stress scenarios represent possible outcomes that have been calculated based on simulations using the reference entity's past performance over a period of up to 5 years and historical default probabilities. In the case of an early redemption, it has been assumed that no reinvestment has occurred. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances. This product cannot be easily cashed in. If you exit the investment earlier than the recommended holding period, you may have to pay extra costs.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

3. What happens if the issuer or the guarantor is unable to pay out?

You are exposed to the risk that the issuer or guarantor might be unable to meet its obligations in connection with the product for instance in the event of bankruptcy or an official directive for resolution action. This may materially adversely affect the value of the product and could lead to you losing some or all of your investment in the product. The product is not covered by any deposit protection scheme.

4. What are the costs?

The person advising on or selling you this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

Costs over time

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you hold the product and how well the product does. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different investment periods.

The duration of this product is uncertain as it may terminate at different times depending on how the market evolves. The amounts shown here consider two different scenarios (early call and maturity). In case you decide to exit before the product ends, exit costs may apply in addition to the amounts shown here.

We have assumed:

- EUR 10,000 is invested
- a performance of the product that is consistent with each holding period shown.

| | If the product is called at the first possible date, on 20 June 2029 | If the product reaches maturity |
|---|---|---|
| Total costs | EUR 4 | EUR 4 |
| Annual cost impact | 8.01% each year | 0.75% each year |

*This illustrates how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example it shows that if you exit at maturity your average return per year is projected to be 94.41% before costs and 93.66% after costs.

We may share part of the costs with the person selling you the product to cover the services they provide to you. They will inform you of the amount.

Composition of costs

| | One-off costs upon entry or exit | If you exit after 1 year |
|---|---|---|
| Entry costs | 0.04% of the amount you pay when entering this investment. These costs are already included in the price you pay. | EUR 4 |
| Exit costs | 1.00% of your investment before it is paid out to you. These costs are already included in the price you receive and are only incurred if you exit before maturity. If an early redemption occurs or if you hold the product until maturity, no exit costs will be incurred. | EUR 100 |

5. How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

Recommended holding period: 9 years and 10 months

The product aims to provide you with the return described under "1. What is this product?" above. However, this only applies if the product is held to maturity. It is therefore recommended that the product is held until 20 June 2036 (maturity), although the product may terminate early.

The product does not guarantee the possibility to disinvest other than by selling the product either (1) through the exchange (if the product is exchange traded) or (2) off-exchange, where an offer for such product exists. In such circumstances, the price quoted will take into account any costs incurred by the issuer and/or the manufacturer associated with the early unwinding of the product. In addition, the person who sold you the product may charge you brokerage fees when you sell the product (see section "4. What are the costs?"). By selling the product before its maturity, you may receive back less than you would have received if you had kept the product until maturity.
