You are about to purchase a product that is not simple and may be difficult to understand.

1. What is this product?

Type English law governed equity-linked notes / Return depends on the performance of the underlyings / No capital protection against market risk

Term The product has a fixed term and will be due on 11 June 2030, subject to an early redemption.

Objectives The product is designed to provide a return in the form of (1) conditional interest payments and (2) a cash payment on termination of the product. The timing and amount of these payments will depend on the performance of the underlyings. If, at maturity, the final reference price of the worst performing underlying has fallen below its barrier price, the product may return less than the unit reference amount or even zero.

(Terms that appear in bold in this section are described in more detail in the table(s) below.)

Early termination following an autocall: The product will terminate prior to the maturity date if, on any autocall observation date, the reference price of the worst performing underlying is at or above the relevant autocall barrier price. On any such early termination, you will on the immediately following autocall payment date receive, in addition to any final interest payment, a cash payment equal to the autocall payment of EUR 1,000.00. No interest payments will be made on any date after such autocall payment date. The relevant dates and autocall barrier prices are shown in the table(s) below.

Interest: If the product has not terminated early, on each interest payment date you will receive an interest payment of EUR 47.00 together with any previously unpaid interest payments if the reference price of the worst performing underlying is at or above its interest barrier price on the immediately preceding interest observation date. If this condition is not met, you will receive no interest payment on such interest payment date. The relevant dates are shown in the table(s) below.

- if the final reference price of the worst performing underlying is below its barrier price, a cash payment directly linked to the performance of the worst performing underlying. The cash payment will equal (i) the unit reference amount multiplied by (ii) (A) the final reference price of the worst performing underlying divided by (B) its strike price.

Under the product terms, certain dates specified above and below will be adjusted if the respective date is either not a business day or not a trading day (as applicable). Any adjustments may affect the return, if any, you receive.

The product terms also provide that if certain exceptional events occur (1) adjustments may be made to the product and/or (2) the issuer may terminate the product early. These events are specified in the product terms and principally relate to the underlyings, the product and the issuer. The return (if any) you receive on such early termination is likely to be different from the scenarios described above and may be less than the amount you invested.

When purchasing this product during its lifetime, the purchase price may include accrued interest on a pro rata basis.

You do not have any entitlement to a dividend from any of the underlyings and you have no right to any further entitlement resulting from any such underlying (e.g., voting rights).

Intended retail investor The product is intended to be offered to retail investors who fulfil all of the criteria below:

1. they have the ability to make an informed investment decision through sufficient knowledge and understanding of the product and its specific risks and rewards, either independently or through professional advice, and they may have experience of investing in and/or holding a number of similar products providing a similar market exposure;
2. they seek income, expect the movement in the underlyings to perform in a way that generates a positive return. They have a medium investment horizon and understand that the product may terminate early;
3. they are able to bear a total loss of their initial investment, consistent with the redemption profile of the product at maturity (market risk);
4. they accept the risk that the issuer or guarantor could fail to pay or perform its obligations under the product irrespective of the redemption profile of the product (credit risk);
5. they are willing to accept a level of risk of 5 out of 7 to achieve potential returns, which reflects a medium-high risk (as shown in the summary risk indicator below which takes into account both market risk and credit risk).

2. What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk indicator

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 5 out of 7, which is a medium-high risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-high level, and poor market conditions are very unlikely to impact our capacity to pay you.

Inflation erodes the purchasing value of cash over time and this may result in the decline in real terms of any capital reimbursed or interest you may be paid under the investment.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

For detailed information about all risks relating to the product please refer to the risk sections of the prospectus and any supplements thereto as specified in the section "7. Other relevant information" below.

Performance scenarios What you will get from this product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted.

The scenarios shown are illustrations based on results from the past and on certain assumptions. Markets could develop very differently in the future.

Recommended holding period:	Until the product is called or matures
	This may be different in each scenario and is indicated in the table
Example investment:	EUR 10,000
Scenarios	If you exit after 1 year	If you exit at call or maturity
Minimum	There is no minimum guaranteed return. You could lose some or all of your investment.
Stress (product ends after 4 years)	What you might get back after costs Average return each year	EUR 2,077 -79.23%	EUR 1,545 -37.16%
Unfavourable (product ends after 4 years)	What you might get back after costs Average return each year	EUR 9,167 -8.33%	EUR 4,666 -17.28%
Moderate (product ends after 6 months and 1 week)	What you might get back after costs Percentage return (not annualised)		EUR 11,051 10.51%
Favourable	What you might get back after costs	EUR 12,806	EUR 17,697

The favourable, moderate, unfavourable and stress scenarios represent possible outcomes that have been calculated based on simulations using the past performance of the underlyings (and that of a selected reference asset with similar movements, as there is not enough available data for the former) over a period of up to 5 years. In the case of an early redemption, it has been assumed that no reinvestment has occurred. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances. This product cannot be easily cashed in. If you exit the investment earlier than the recommended holding period, you may have to pay extra costs.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

3. What happens if the issuer or the guarantor is unable to pay out?

You are exposed to the risk that the issuer or guarantor might be unable to meet its obligations in connection with the product for instance in the event of bankruptcy or an official directive for resolution action. This may materially adversely affect the value of the product and could lead to you losing some or all of your investment in the product. The product is not covered by any deposit protection scheme.

4. What are the costs?

The person advising on or selling you this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

Costs over time

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you hold the product and how well the product does. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different investment periods.

The duration of this product is uncertain as it may terminate at different times depending on how the market evolves. The amounts shown here consider two different scenarios (early call and maturity). In case you decide to exit before the product ends, exit costs may apply in addition to the amounts shown here.

We have assumed:

- EUR 10,000 is invested
- a performance of the product that is consistent with each holding period shown.

	If the product is called at the first possible date, on 14 September 2026	If the product reaches maturity
Total costs	EUR 797	EUR 797
Annual cost impact*	9.16%	2.41% each year

*This illustrates how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example it shows that if you exit at maturity your average return per year is projected to be 17.67% before costs and 15.26% after costs.

We may share part of the costs with the person selling you the product to cover the services they provide to you. They will inform you of the amount.

Composition of costs

	One-off costs upon entry or exit	If you exit after 1 year
Entry costs	7.97% of the amount you pay when entering this investment. These costs are already included in the price you pay.	EUR 797
Exit costs	1.01% of your investment before it is paid out to you. These costs are already included in the price you receive and are only incurred if you exit before maturity. If an early redemption occurs or if you hold the product until maturity, no exit costs will be incurred.	EUR 101

5. How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

Recommended holding period: 4 years

The product aims to provide you with the return described under "1. What is this product?" above. However, this only applies if the product is held to maturity. It is therefore recommended that the product is held until 11 June 2030 (maturity), although the product may terminate early.

The product does not guarantee the possibility to disinvest other than by selling the product either (1) through the exchange (if the product is exchange traded) or (2) off-exchange, where an offer for such product exists. In such circumstances, the price quoted will take into account any costs incurred by the issuer and/or the manufacturer associated with the early unwinding of the product. In addition, the person who sold you the product may charge you brokerage fees when you sell the product (see section "4. What are the costs?"). By selling the product before its maturity, you may receive back less than you would have received if you had kept the product until maturity.
